51.                 Hello everybody! During the school course I was given the task to make a website on a topic that interests me. I like many things so making the choice was a little difficult. Above all, choosing any theme would have been beneficial for learning. I decided to make a portfolio website of me as a web designer because I might need one in the future. My dream and plan is to study website design. The course from which I got this website assignment was the first step in to the coding world. I liked it a lot so I think I'm on the right track and this is just the beginning.↵
